

ORDO FRANCISCANUS SÆCULARIS
XIII. GENERAL CHAPTER
São Paulo, October 22-29, 2011

Allegato n. 10

DECISION ON THE WEARING OF THE "HABIT" IN THE OFS

---

The General Chapter makes the following

DECISION

The practice of wearing a “habit” is not in conformity with the Rule and General Constitutions of the OFS, as already established.

As a practical interpretation<sup>1</sup> of Article 43 of the General Constitutions, the Chapter emphasizes and insists that the distinctive sign of membership in the Order is the "Tau or other Franciscan symbol". (GGCC 43). A “Franciscan symbol” is a small and simple insignia that is worn on the person (for example, a San Damiano cross).

However, an OFS National Fraternity may determine in its National Statutes that the wearing a “uniform” is an acceptable sign of recognition for Secular Franciscans of their own country, providing that the following mandatory criteria is followed:

- a) the uniform does not replace the TAU or the Franciscan symbol selected by the National Fraternity;

- b) the nature of the uniform is to be specified in the National Statutes, including a detailed description (preferably graphical) and be of a style that respects the secularity of the members of the Order;
- c) the style of the uniform should not look like the habit worn by member of a religious Order, so as to avoid bringing confusion between religious and seculars;
- d) the occasions during which this uniform may be worn must be precisely indicated and specifically excludes its use during the rites of admission and/or profession.

The Chapter states that the decision replaces all previous documents in this regard, and becomes in effect now and for the future.
