

ST. JOSEPH CUPERTINO FRATERNITY
Enkindle the Fire of Mercy in our Hearts
Gathering – May 15, 2016 – 1 PM to 4 PM

Laudato Si (Praise be to you – On Care For Our Common Home), Paragraph 12

"The urgent challenge to protect our common home includes a concern to bring the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change. The Creator does not abandon us; he never forsakes his loving plan or repents of having created us. Humanity still has the ability to work together in building our common home. Here I want to recognize, encourage and thank all those striving in countless ways to guarantee the protection of the home which we share. Particular appreciation is owed to those who tirelessly seek to resolve the tragic effects of environmental degradation on the lives of the world's poorest. Young people demand change. They wonder how anyone can claim to be building a better future without thinking of the environmental crisis and the sufferings of the excluded." ~ Pope Francis

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Francis and Clare,

No Saint was the image of Christ as St. Francis of Assisi. Now, between Jesus and Mary there is the greater unity imaginable. So, between St. Francis and Our Lady there was the closest possible union between holy souls. Herald of the great King, singer of the most exquisite poetry that the soul knows, Francis was also the most tender son of Mary.

All actions of Francis headed in the light of Christ and his Blessed Mother. St. Bonaventure, in his "Legend Maggiore" writes: "Sheltered also this church, a place called Portiuncula, in which it was originally dedicated to the Blessed Virgin was then, however, abandoned and not taken care of by anyone. When the man of God saw her so abandoned, driven by his fervent devotion to the Queen of the world, he began to dwell assiduously in that place, with the intent to repair it.

This holy place he loved more than all the other places in the world. Here, in fact, humbly began, progressed virtuously here; here happily came to fruition. This place, at the time of death, he recommended to the brothers as the most dear to the Virgin. "(LegM, n. 1048) San Francesco wanted to better contemplate the mystery of Jesus: he wanted to reflect in her soul and her children the beauty of Mary, to ignite in them the love of God. Even St. Bonaventure says: "surrounded with indescribable love the Mother of the Lord Jesus, to the fact that has made our brother the Lord of Majesty, and we got the mercy. In her mainly, after that in Christ, he placed his trust, and therefore constituted his lawyer and his people. In his honor was fasting with great devotion the feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul until the feast of the Assumption "(LegM, n. 1165).

Marian devotion of St. Francis developed with the apostolic activity of his life and is manifested in all its private and public acts. Francis left few writings related to Mary, but they are enough to make us understand the ardent love he had to her; in the "Salutation of the Blessed Virgin Mary", he sums up his entire devotion to her: "Hail Lady, Holy Queen, Holy Mother of God, Mary, Who are the Virgin made Church, in whom there was and is all fullness of grace and every good. His palace Ave, His tabernacle, Hail His house, Ave, his garment Hail His Servant! Hail His Mother. (...) "; in his "Office of the Passion" he says: "Holy Virgin Mary, in the world among women not born no one like you, daughter and handmaid of the Most High King, the heavenly Father, Mother of our most Holy Lord Jesus Christ, spouse Holy Spirit. " And yet, Thomas of Celano writes: "The heart of Francis burned with fervent devotion and singular love for the heavenly Mother. In her, after Jesus, was all his trust. "

Why I Took the Name Francis

There are various reasons why I chose the name of Francis of Assisi, a familiar figure far beyond the borders of Italy and Europe, even among those who do not profess the Catholic faith. One of the first reasons was Francis' love for the poor. How many poor people there still are in the world! And how great the suffering they must endure! After the example of Francis of Assisi, the Church in every corner of the globe has always tried to care for and look after those who suffer from want, and I think that in many countries we can attest to the generous activity of Christians who dedicate themselves to helping the sick, orphans, the homeless and the marginalized, thus striving to make society more humane and more just.

But there is also another form of poverty. It is the spiritual poverty of our time, which afflicts the so-called richer countries particularly seriously. It is what my much-loved predecessor, Benedict XVI, called the 'tyranny of relativism', which makes everyone his own criterion and endangers the coexistence of peoples. And that brings me to the second reason for which I chose my name. Francis of Assisi tells us we should work to build peace. But there is no true peace without truth! There cannot be true peace if everyone is his own criterion, if everyone can always claim exclusively his own rights, without at the same time caring for the good of others, of everyone, on the basis of the nature that unites every human being on this earth. One of the titles of the Bishop of Rome is Pontiff, that is, a builder of bridges with God and between people."

Food for Thought

The corporal and spiritual works of mercy remind us that our faith translate into concrete and everyday gestures, intended to help our neighbor in body and in spirit and on which we shall be judged: To nurture, To visit, Comfort him and educate him. – Pope Francis

Dialogue between us should help to build bridges connecting all people, in such a way that everyone can see in the other not an enemy, not a rival, but a brother or sister to be welcomed and embraced! Moreover, his own origins impel me to work for the building of bridges. In fact, my family is of Italian origin; and so this dialogue between places and cultures a great distance apart matters greatly to me, this dialogue between one end of the world and the other, which today are growing ever closer, more interdependent, more in need of opportunities to meet and to create real spaces of authentic fraternity. The role of religion is fundamental in this work: It is not possible to establish true links with God, while ignoring other people.

And it is also important to intensify outreach to non-believers, so that the differences which divide and hurt us may never prevail, but rather the desire to build true links of friendship between all peoples, despite their diversity. Therefore fighting poverty, both material and spiritual, building peace and constructing bridges are the focal points of a journey that I want to invite all to take up. A difficult journey if we do not learn to grow in love for this world of ours. Here too, it helps me to think of the name of Francis, who teaches us profound respect for the whole of creation and the protection of our environment, which all too often, instead of using for the good, we exploit greedily.

~ Pope Francis

Ten Simple Rules for Daily Living

The Daily Decalogue of Pope St. John XXIII SFO

- 1) Only for today, I will seek to live the livelong day positively without wishing to solve the problems of my life all at once.
- 2) Only for today, I will take the greatest care of my appearance: I will dress modestly; I will not raise my voice; I will be courteous in my behavior; I will not criticize anyone; I will not claim to improve or to discipline anyone except myself.
- 3) Only for today, I will be happy in the certainty that I was created to be happy, not only in the other world but also in this one.
- 4) Only for today, I will adapt to circumstances, without requiring all circumstances to be adapted to my own wishes.
- 5) Only for today, I will devote 10 minutes of my time to some good reading, remembering that just as food is necessary to the life of the body, so good reading is necessary to the life of the soul.
- 6) Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it.
- 7) Only for today, I will do at least one thing I do not like doing; and if my feelings are hurt, I will make sure that no one notices.
- 8) Only for today, I will make a plan for myself: I may not follow it to the letter, but I will make it. And I will be on guard against two evils: hastiness and indecision.
- 9) Only for today, I will firmly believe, despite appearances, that the good providence of God cares for me as no one else who exists in this world.
- 10) Only for today, I will have no fears. In particular, I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe in goodness. Indeed, for 12 hours I can certainly do what might cause me consternation were I to believe I had to do it all my life.

To conclude: here is an all-embracing resolution: "I want to be kind, today and always, to everyone."

Rule 22 of the Secular Franciscan Order
The local fraternity is to be established canonically. It becomes the basic unit of the whole Order and a visible sign of the Church, the community of love. This should be the privileged place for developing a sense of Church and the Franciscan vocation and for enlivening the apostolic life of its members.
