Peace* - Minister

Our Council meeting will be at 11:10 am in the church hall and then attend the Noon Mass.

Our afternoon gathering will include: prayers, meeting, teaching from Father Berard, if his health allows him to attend, health updates. Teaching—we will have responses on our homework, etc.

If you would like to do the September teaching, please let me know. It can be from the "FUN" manual or scripture passage. The fraternity will provide drinks and Mercy will bring a snack. If you would like to bring snacks for the September meeting, please let me know. Don't forget to support the common fund of the fraternity.

This money is used for the Fair Share to the Region as well as stipend for Father and other apostolates that we support.

HOMEWORK by Father Berard: Write down in a journal or notebook what you are praying for; who you are praying for; or why you are praying. Write down your personal prayers. If you have a personal prayer to the Lord or the Blessed Mother that you wish to share, please write it down.

Pax, Carol

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE SECULAR FRANCISCAN

O, Good and Gracious God,
 God of mercy, compassion, generosity,
 and love,
 As we live our lives today in the model of St. Francis, choosing daily to live the Gospel life,
 Help us to help others hear Your call.

Help us to help others to recognize their vocation as a Secular Franciscan that You have already planted in their heart.
 Help us, so that together we all may work to bring the Gospel to life.
 Amen!

St. Bernard of Clairvaux -- 1091-1153 -- August 20

Man of the century! Woman of the century! You see such terms applied to so many today—"golfer of the century," "composer of the century," "right tackle of the century"—that the line no longer has any punch. But Western Europe's "man of the twelfth century," without doubt or controversy, has to be Bernard of Clairvaux. Adviser of popes, preacher of the Second Crusade, defender of the faith, healer of a schism, reformer of a monastic Order, Scripture scholar, theologian and eloquent preacher: any one of these titles would distinguish an ordinary man. Yet Bernard was all of these—and he still retained a burning desire to return to the hidden monastic life of his younger days. In the year 1111, at the age of 20, Bernard left his home to join the monastic community of Citeaux. His five brothers, two uncles and some 30 young friends followed him into the monastery. Within four years a dying community had recovered enough vitality to establish a new house in the nearby valley of Wormwoods, with Bernard as abbot. The zealous young man was quite demanding, though more on himself than others. A slight breakdown of health taught him to be more patient and understanding. The valley was soon renamed Clairvaux, the valley of light.

His ability as arbitrator and counselor became widely known. More and more he was lured away from the monastery to settle long-standing disputes. On several of these occasions he apparently stepped on some sensitive toes in Rome. Bernard was completely dedicated to the primacy of the Roman See. But to a letter of warning from Rome, he replied that the good fathers in Rome had enough to do to keep the Church in one piece. If any matters arose that warranted their interest, he would be the first to let them know. Shortly thereafter it was Bernard who intervened in a full-blown schism and settled it in favor of the Roman pontiff against the antipope.

The Holy See prevailed on Bernard to preach the Second Crusade throughout Europe. His eloquence was so overwhelming that a great army was assembled and the success of the crusade seemed assured. The ideals of the men and their leaders, however, were not those of Abbot Bernard, and the project ended as a complete military and moral disaster. Bernard felt responsible in some way for the degenerative effects of the crusade. This heavy burden possibly hastened his death, which came August 20, 1153.

Quote:

"In dangers, in doubts, in difficulties, think of Mary, call upon Mary. Let not her name depart from your lips, never suffer it to leave your heart. And that you may more surely obtain the assistance of her prayer, neglect not to walk in her footsteps. With her for guide, you shall never go astray; while invoking her, you shall never lose heart; so long as she is in your mind, you are safe from deception; while she holds your hand, you cannot fall; under her protection you have nothing to fear; if she walks before you, you shall not grow weary; if she shows you favor, you shall reach the goal" (St. Bernard).

Pray for peace in the Middle East, Iraq, Israel, Ukraine, South Africa, Syria, so many areas.

For those in Iraq threatened with violence for their Christian faith, grant them peace and stability that will enable them to live without fear and anxiety, and with dignity and joy, we pray to the Lord...Lord hear our prayers.
