DECEMBER 20. 2015

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Our Council meeting will be at Noon in the church hall.

We will gather downstairs in the meeting room around 1:15 pm for Christmas celebration.

There will be a brief meeting and Christmas pageant.

Pax et Bonum

Carol

Personal note—sorry I have not attended meetings—back problems, kidney stones, low sugar — I have been remembering all in prayers.

We are asking if possible, you bring something to share with your brothers and sisters. Some cookies, a dip, a cake, crackers, cheeses, cups, plates, a dish to share or crock pot.

We will be able to enjoy each others company and snacks.

The Council - Mary,

Carol, Joe, Shirley and Barbara—wishes all a very Merry and Blessed Christmas and a Happy and Safe New Year!

 YEAR OF MERCY BEGINS DEC. 8

 "Today, there is an inescapable duty to make ourselves the neighbor of every individual, without exception, and to take positive steps to help a neighbor whom we encounter, whether that neighbor be an elderly person, abandoned by everyone, a foreign worker who suffers the injustice of being despised, a refugee, an illegitimate child wrongly suffering for a sin of which the child is innocent, or a starving human being who awakens our conscience by calling to mind the words of Christ: 'As long as you did it for one of these, the least of my brethren, you did it for me' (Matthew 25:40)"

Prayer for peace, especially to those who have been suffering persecution and torment by fellow countrymen.

Prayers for the Syrian refugees—may countries and Christians open their hearts.

VOCATION PRAYER FOR O.F.S.

O God, when the world was growing cold, you called blessed Francis to enkindle your love in the hearts of men. Increase in us the warmth of your Holy Spirit.

We also pray that you will increase the number of our brothers and sisters in the

Lay Order of St. Francis, so that through them and all others living a Christian life, the world may be worthy to receive your Peace and Goodness and give glory to you. Through Christ, Our Lord. Amen

Size Doesn't Matter, Really

by Friar Jim Van Vurst, O.F.M.

In our society, it seems that everything has to be bigger or the greatest. “More is more,” as they say. But the truth is this: size is not really that important.

If we want to consider something really big, all we need do is think of the universe. It’s always been a source of wonderment for humanity. Today, with telescopes, we are privileged to see immense stars and galaxies. Scientists have figured out that the universe is composed of more than 100 billion galaxies—each having between 100 and 200 billion stars!

And what’s more: the universe has been around for a very long time. We are sure the beginning of the universe started around 13 billion years ago. And we know the universe is still expanding. Of course, this does not explain how it began. People of faith believe that God is the cause of all that we see, either directly or indirectly. It’s no wonder that we are filled with awe at what is above us. The Psalm said it beautifully: “The heavens proclaim the glory of God.”

One Life: Infinite Potential

Size is not that important, truly. In fact, all the matter, power, and energy in the universe are nothing compared to one tiny human zygote, which we know measures about one-hundredth of an inch—barely visible to the naked eye.

If size is what matters, then it is no contest between that zygote and the universe. But it’s what is in that tiny creation of God’s that trumps the universe as far as importance goes. Again, the universe has been expanding for over 13 billion years. But in just nine months, that almost invisible zygote will enter the world as a baby. And the universe—for all of its power and size—cannot hold a candle to the touch of a baby’s skin or a smile that shines from his or her face.

But the difference is that the moment that zygote came into existence, he or she was and always will be the “image and likeness of God.” And the infant has the potential to do things that are impossible for the billions of stars and galaxies in the universe: he or she has the capacity to love and to forgive. The magnificent universe that can overwhelm us by its grandeur pales in comparison to a single human person made in God’s image and likeness. Case closed.

Who among us would ever think of exchanging a newborn infant for the universe?

After all, a tiny infant fits so nicely in our arms!

*Soil, water, mountains:
everything is,
as it were,
a caress of God."*

--Pope Francis
