Editor of the Instrument of Peace - Minister

Our Council meeting will be at 11:10 am in the church hall and then attend the Noon Mass.

Our afternoon gathering will include: prayers, meeting, teaching from Father Berard, if his health allows him to attend, health updates. Rosary for the month of May and crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary— thank you Jean for helping with this.

The June 22 gathering we will be attending the Little Flower Fraternity meeting at St. Clement at 1:30 pm. Please make every effort to attend this meeting and if someone you know is interested in the Secular Franciscans— invite them also.

This will give us a chance to share with another fraternity and to get input as to how others conduct their meetings. I am very excited to be breaking words and bread with them.

I hope all my sisters enjoyed a Lovely Mother's Day

Have a blessed May,

Pax, Carol

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE SECULAR FRANCISCAN

O, Good and Gracious God,
 God of mercy, compassion, generosity,
 and love,
 As we live our lives today in the model of St. Francis, choosing daily to live the Gospel life,
 Help us to help others hear Your call.

Help us to help others to recognize their vocation as a Secular Franciscan that You have already planted in their heart.
 Help us, so that together we all may work to bring the Gospel to life.
 Amen!

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Let Yourself Be Built Into a Spiritual House

We continue our journey through the Easter season with our readings this fifth Sunday of Easter. For some reason the first three sentences in the second reading from 1 Peter 2 are left out of the reading. The chapter starts with "Rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, insincerity, envy, and all slander; like newborn infants, long for pure spiritual milk so that through it you may grow into salvation, for you have tasted that the Lord is good." You have to wonder why these three sentences were left out of the reading. In fact on Sunday we will hear the reading start with the word 'Beloved' as if this was the beginning of the letter from Peter. However in the actual letter, the word beloved is not used. The reading goes on to say: "let yourselves be built into a spiritual house." It doesn't say we should build spiritual houses, but rather we should be the spiritual houses. St Francis of Assisi understood this when he heard God calling him to "repair my church." At first, Francis thought that God was calling him to physically repair the buildings. He then realized that God didn't mean building physical buildings but rather to help every person become a spiritual house. The first sentence of 1 Peter 2 tells us how we can do that. We need to rid ourselves of all malice, envy, deceit, insincerity and slander. That is easier said than done.

In Sunday's Gospel Jesus says: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these." Imagine if you stood up at Mass on Sunday and announced to the whole congregation that you are going to do greater works than Jesus. You would quickly be ushered out of the church. You would be called a heretic maybe even be excommunicated. Yet there it is in black and white straight from the mouth of Jesus. Why is it that we have such a hard time believing what Jesus tells us? My pastor and friend Father Tom often asks the question "How many times in the Gospel does Jesus tell us to worship him?" The answer is none, not once in the Gospels does Jesus tell us to worship him. Yet we spend most of our time worshipping Jesus. We do that because it is so much easier to worship Jesus than it is to pick up our crosses and be Jesus. Maybe if we stopped worshipping Jesus and started to be just like Jesus we would start doing "greater ones than these."

Peace and All Good

Patrick Carolan, FAN Executive Director

Suggested Petitions:

May we have the courage to open our hearts to Jesus' word and allow Him to build us into spiritual houses, Let us pray...

May the Word of God resonate within and guide us to carry out the actions Jesus encourages us to do, Let us pray...
